

19. Canada: Ben Schöniger from Reach Community Church writes, "We are introducing our newly developed discipleship course to the church and testing it out in our small groups. Please pray for openness, growth, and honest feedback, so we can improve the course for our context."

20. Germany: Faisal and Faiza Danish share, "In the international church in Karlsruhe there is a men's breakfast every Saturday and a worship service followed by a time of fellowship on Sunday afternoons. Please pray for God's continued blessings on these times together and that He would bring out more young families."

21. Spain: Rebekka Eggeler writes, "The congregation in Valencia is growing. We are grateful for this momentum. We are concerned with how to best make the services accessible for visitors that are unfamiliar with church. Please pray that Jesus will lead people to himself. Please also pray that we will find a larger building, as we cannot expand the current one."

Thought of the Week:
"God-glorifying faith is a future-oriented confidence in God's integrity and power and wisdom to follow through on all His promises."
-John Piper

22. Canada: Tobias and Sarah Mueller write, "Our students from Germany finished language school. They are getting more involved in ministry at different churches in Toronto. Please pray that God will use them in many ways. Also, please pray, that they will learn from the people that they are serving with."

23. France: Evelyn Theurer is continuing to settle into her new assignment in Northern Alsace. Please pray as she gets to know the people and learn their needs.

24. Ecuador: Sebastian and Beth Wolf are joining the team in Ecuador. They will be involved in a project involving students. Please pray for their transition and language studies.

25. Burundi: Manuel and Esther Stoll share, "Due to a lack of jobs many Burundians are leaving the country. This has caused our house group to shrink. Please pray as we seek to support our former members and prepare them for culture shock in a community with little Christian influence. Also please pray that they find local churches and remain faithful to God."

26. Canada: From Reach Community Church, "We have a Baptism Sunday planned for June 14. Join us in praying for 5 people to take the step of faith to get baptized."

27. Japan: Thomas and Irene Beck write, "The administrative work of the registered religious umbrella organisation is a large challenge. Please pray for good cooperation between the board and Ms. Osum, in the office. Please also pray for success in transitioning to a new system."

28. Niger: From Dr. Esther Pflaum, "The security situation in general has deteriorated. As a result, all non-African foreigners had to leave the hospital in Galmi. For me, this means that my planned short-term assignment cannot take place. But the work in the hospital continues. The director needs a lot of wisdom in the restructuring that needs to be done. Please pray for the work, the staff, and the Christians in the country, that they may continue with confidence in Jesus."

29. Japan: Fabian and Debora Knoos report, "So far, we have hosted two open board game evenings. Ten people attended the first evening, and three times as many came on the second evening. Some of the young adults from an international church in Noborito were present, communication went well. Because the evenings were well received and many connections were made, we would like to offer them monthly from now on. Please pray that relationships will deepen and trust will grow."

30. Canada: Benjamin Rueb will have arrived (Lord willing, at the time of writing this) from Germany and is settling into Canada. Please pray for him as he builds relationships and community. Please also pray for him as he looks for a place to stay in Toronto and embarks on ministering as a mission intern moving forward.

31. Spain: Rebekka Eggeler reports, "I am in the process of asking where God wants to use me in the future, I am asking Jesus for a lot of patience. May He open doors, provide me with contacts, and show me new tasks. In the summer, I was able to make new contacts in Madrid and was asked to do a nine-month online discipleship course with a small group of girls. This allows me to help shape the younger generation. Please pray for wisdom as I accompany these young women."

Thought of the Week:
"Faith is a living, daring confidence in God's grace, so sure and certain that man could stake his life on it a thousand times."
-Martin Luther

LIEBENZELL MISSION of Canada

March 2026 Prayer Guide

Liebenzell Mission of Canada
12168 First Line, RR # 1
Moffat, ON L0P 1J0
www.liebenzell.ca

Thought of the Week:
“Faith does not eliminate questions; it knows where to take them.”
-Elisabeth Elliot

1. Zambia: Benjamin and Debora Wagner share, “This year’s discipleship program in Mushili- Help for Life project is drawing to a close. Please pray that the students will apply what they have learned in their communities. Please also pray for the new cohort that will begin in April.

2. Canada: From Markus and Regine Gommel, “Ramadan is in its last 2 weeks. Most Muslims are fasting and expecting forgiveness of their sins. Please pray with us that Jesus would reveal himself to them as the only one that can forgive sin and that they would turn to Him!”

3. Ecuador: Andrés and Katrin Vergara write, “Unfortunately, we are not allowed to do student ministry at the University of Tumbaco. The student mission at the country’s largest university, ‘Universidad Central del Ecuador’, expressed their joy that we are supporting them within their ministry. Please pray as we continue to invest in young people and trust that God will show us further opportunities.”

4. Papua New Guinea: Sebastian and Katharina Pross share, “Please continue to pray for political and economic stability in the country. Port Moresby recently cleared an entire suburban settlement due to high crime rates there. Please pray for the children and the Shape Life staff who ran a kids’ club in this settlement.

5. Japan: Maximillian and Sybille Seifert write, “Our internship at the Eifuku Church has been extended for another year. Please pray during this time that God will show us what is next. Perhaps even a church plant in collaboration with Eifuku.

6. Canada: From Ruth Ann Elliot, “Please continue to pray for my recuperation process after the kidney transplant. It requires a lot of trips to the London hospital and lots of lab work and other tests. But I am slowly getting used to all the anti-rejection drugs and feeling better. I thank the Lord for His presence and peace at this time of grieving and thank everyone who has prayed for me and sent me messages of condolence and encouragement.”

7. Zambia: At our Armano Secondary School, we will be welcoming a new Science teacher and a new French teacher this month. Please pray that the two Zambians will settle in well.

Thought of the Week:
“It is not the strength of your faith, but the object of your faith that actually saves you.”
-Tim Keller

8. Canada: Today Reach Community Church has its AGM. Please pray for guidance, wisdom, and spiritual unity.

9. Ecuador: Andrés and Katrin Vergara write, “A small house group has formed in Quito. We meet on Sundays at our home. Please pray that the participants will get to know Jesus better and that their faith in him would grow.”

10. Germany/Middle East: Our staff couple report, “A. took the step to follow Jesus and get baptized. With tears in his eyes, he expressed his desire for his Muslim family to also get to know Jesus. We held a training session for Arab believers to address this and similar questions. How do I talk about the Good News? How can I encourage others to discover God for themselves by reading the Bible? Please pray as we continue to accompany the participants and help them apply what they have learned.”

11. Austria: Sebastian and Samira Urschitz write, “Sebastian will be beginning as a pastor in the ‘Gemeinde unterwegs’ church but will continue to spend a third of his time with impact-move, focusing on evangelistic work among children.” Please pray for the Urschitz family as they balance these various ministries.

12. Ecuador: From Kevin and Kathy Bruce, “We see a lot of suffering among the Awa people. Drunkenness, domestic violence, divorces, and sometimes suicides are prevalent here. Please pray that these people will turn to God.”

13. Canada: Memo Bojan is continuing his travels and speaking engagements at churches in Germany. Please pray for his travels and for his conversations. Would these engagements continue to expand his supporter network in Germany.

14. Germany: Frank and Hanna Winkelmann write from Tübingen, “We are pleased that recently some Chinese church service visitors have decided to follow Jesus. However, they are still struggling with the decision to be baptized. Please pray that God will give them clarity, confidence, and great joy to take this step in faith.”

Thought of the Week:
“Faith is deliberate confidence in the character of God whose ways you may not understand at the time.”
-Oswald Chambers

15. Spain: Felix and Jessica Unger share, “The children’s worship team consists of teenagers led by Jessica. Please pray that God will empower these young people and that they will grow in these roles.

16. LMC Headquarters: Sam Strauss and some board members are reviewing and updating the various policies of LMC in the coming months. Please pray for wisdom, vision, strong teamwork and patience for this important and challenging task.

17. Japan: Kenji and Haruko Takeda have taken over the church work in Sakuragawa. They would like to become more involved in the neighbourhood and build more connections in they city. Please pray that people will discover Jesus and that the church will grow.

18. Canada: Markus and Regine Gommel share, “We are visiting Muslim friends for their Eid festival which marks the end of Ramadan. We want to share Jesus the Savior with our friends, and we are praying for their salvation. Please join us in prayer!”

For we walk by FAITH
not by
SIGHT
2 CORINTHIANS 5:7