

19. Uganda: Martin and Tabea Auch write, “We are trying to encourage Ugandan Christians to follow Jesus, help young people find work, and raise awareness of the call to world missions. We thank Jesus that a nationwide network has been established. Please pray with us that an international team will be found to take over our ministry in 2027.”

20. Spain: Mirjam and David Schmückle report, “Early this summer we celebrated the baptism of a homeless man. He had only arrived in Spain in January and showed up at breakfast at ‘Misión Urbana.’ Although he was a Muslim, his interest in the Christian faith grew. Please pray that he will come to know Jesus even better and experience God’s love. He is the only Christian in his family.”

21. Germany: Luca and Emma Eichel report, “The church-planting team at Frankfurter Berg is in the process of developing the project’s vision and values. We are grateful for the many opportunities to connect through after-school care, the family meetup and the language café. Please pray for meaningful conversations and that God will personally reach out to many people.

Thought of the Week:
“God’s revelation is in the gospel not only reveals who He is, but it also reveals who we are.”
— David Platt

22. France: Norbert and Susanne Laffin write, “M. and Jimmy were baptized at the church in Alençon. Please pray that they will grow in their relationship with Jesus and take on responsibilities. Please also pray for more people to serve in church leadership and youth ministry.”

23. Canada: Memo Bojan writes, “I am currently in discussions with FEB regarding the next steps in our partnership. Please pray for the Holy Spirit’s guidance for everyone involved, that His will would be done and that His kingdom would continue to be built faithfully and effectively.

24. Japan: Fabian and Debora Knoos write, “Thank you for all your prayers regarding the language test! We will receive the results at the end of August, and we hope we pass. Fabian is now looking for jobs that will leave enough time for family and church work.” Please pray for God’s hand and guidance as Fabian searches for the right job.

25. Papua New Guinea: Manuel Feige has started a podcast project. Almost everyone in Wewak has a smartphone with internet access. Please pray that God’s Word will reach people in their own language.

26. Bangladesh: Benedikt and Verena Tschauner write, “Please include the youth ministry of our partner church in your prayers. Sonet in Dhaka and Somrat in Khulna have been hired to bring new energy to the ministry. The focus is on weekly youth groups. We are currently planning a two-day youth group leaders’ training course.”

27. Canada/Papua New Guinea: Jesse and Stephanie and children will return to Canada for the time being. Please pray for good fellowship. They would like to reassess their situation and hope to return here again. Please pray for God’s guidance.”

28. Canada: From Markus and Regine Gommel, “We praise God for the Isa Fellowship retreat. We pray that the Word of God will let our friends grow into people who look out for others and be actively a part of forming the community our Lord Jesus desires.”

29. Austria: Stefan and Angelika Lanz write, “Every week we meet for a Bible study and prayer. We are very excited about three young men. They are hungry for God’s Word, have come to know Jesus, and have now been baptized. We don’t yet have a core team for the church plant, but we’ve held our first meetings as a vision team. We’ve already had some positive conversations. Please pray for fruitful encounters. Also pray that a core team will form.”

30. Papua New Guinea: Manuel and Christina Feige report, “We are grateful that we were able to train 16 participants in the annual basic course for volunteer staff. They’re now capable of leading children’s church or kids’ club in their communities. Some are starting new ministries, while others are strengthening existing teams.” Please pray for these teams starting their ministries.

31. Canada: From Zack and Carolyn Perluisi, “Today we welcome our 30 Impact Mission interns as they begin their 11 months of ministry here in Canada. This week they will be at the retreat center for training and discipleship before heading to their ministry placements. This year they will be serving at nine different locations, including camps, churches, and after-school programs. Please pray for us as we spend this week getting to know one another. May the Lord use this time to build strong, God honouring relationships.”

Thought of the Week:
“God never hurries. There are no deadlines against which He must work. Only to know this is to quiet our spirits and relax our nerves.”
— A.W. Tozer

Thought of the Week:
“Why am I here? To be a megaphone for God's glory.”
— Jen Wilkin

1. Germany: Frank and Hanna Winkelmann write, “We are delighted to now be able to hold our worship services in a new location. We have also had new visitors. Our team of volunteers is very motivated but needs support, especially with leading worship and organizing activities for children. It has become more difficult to invite young Chinese people to the student group. That’s why we’re now offering a weekly English-language online Bible course. Please pray for active participation and that God will touch hearts.”

2. Burundi: Chiara Schwehn reports, “The ‘Christian Life Ministry’ (CLM) community in Muha is offering a program for children at a small Christian festival today. Please pray that it will be a blessed time for the children, staff, and families.

3. Zambia: August is vacation time. Since most parents are at work, the children are often left to their devices. Please pray for their protection regarding what they view online. May Jesus help them avoid consuming harmful content.”

4. Papua New Guinea: As part of his Masters thesis on the topic of “partnership,” Sebastian Pross will be interviewing church leaders in August. Please pray for valuable insights for the work on the ground.

5. Bangladesh: Micha and Katrin Ulmer report, “At the Khulna Children’s Village, we are planning an alumni reunion for early August. It’s difficult to get in touch with the former Village kids. Please pray that it can take place and that a network will develop that will be a blessing to the project.”

6. Germany: Jana Kontermann, Silas and Avery Frank, and Lena Ruopp will be hosting another worship service in the neighborhood. They have invited neighbors, friends, and acquaintances to join. Please pray that this will be a fruitful night of worship and spending time in God’s word.

7. Papua New Guinea: In some settlements of Wewak, children’s groups have been suspended due to unrest. Please pray for courage for those in charge and for wisdom on how to move forward.

Thought of the Week:
“God will either give us what we ask or give us what we would have asked if we knew everything he knows.”
—Timothy Keller

8. Malawi: Johannes and Vroni Urschitz report, “Harold Maloya has been working with the Ubwenzi project. He is developing income-generating opportunities. In addition, he has started holding regular meetings for community leaders. The goal is, to encourage their support for the ‘Sustainable Economic Empowerment’ program and, also to offer leadership training based on biblical principles. Throughout August, there will be training sessions, for teachers, staff, church leaders, women’s groups, and youth.” Please pray that they will be beneficial to all the ministries and opportunities already in action.

9. Canada: Tobias and Sarah Mueller write, “Please pray for Tobias as he leads the Bible studies at the Toronto Baptist Seminary Retreat on September 9–11. Pray that the Lord would give him wisdom and clarity in teaching His Word and help him to encourage and strengthen the students in their walk with Christ. Please also pray that the retreat would be a spiritually fruitful time for everyone involved and that God would use His word to deepen faith and foster spiritual growth.”

10. Papua New Guinea: Former missionaries Ulrich and Annette Schmalzhaf will be in Papua New Guinea for a few weeks starting to explore whether long-term ministry there again is possible for them and what form it might take. Please pray for God’s guidance in all their encounters.

11. Bangladesh: Monsoon rains, flash floods, and landslides since early July have caused severe damage. Well over one million people have been affected by the flooding; many have had to leave their homes or have been cut off from the outside world. Please pray that those impacted will receive help soon and that the floodwaters will recede.

12. Canada: Markus and Regine Gommel write, “We are on a 2-month ministry trip in Germany. We pray that the Lord will use our testimony to increase the generosity of his community towards migrants and those who don’t know the Lord. Please pray that we all may powerfully participate in God’s mission.”

13. Papua New Guinea: Manuel and Christina Feige “Several training sessions are scheduled for the coming weeks. Please pray that the right people, will attend and that the participants will be able to apply what they’ve learned in their churches afterward.”

14. Canada: Benjamin and Julia Schöninger share, “This summer, we want to make new connections, primarily with parents in the neighborhood. We design our worship services to be interactive for all generations. Small groups at tables work together as a team to complete tasks and answer questions. This way, we learn together, and there is no need for a separate children’s program.” Please pray for meaningful connections to be made.

Thought of the Week:
“God is most glorified in us when we are most satisfied in Him.”
—John Piper

15. Germany: Nat and Abby Wibberley write, “At the ‘Festival of the Worldwide Church’ on Pentecost, we were able to introduce Lifepoint Church and distribute several Turkish Bibles. Please pray that relationships will grow from this. Please also pray for a young Turkish couple who are very close to our hearts. May they come to know Jesus personally.

16. Canada: Sam and Anne Strauss are heading to Germany today. They will be there until mid-October. Please pray for them in the many speaking opportunities and visits they have scheduled. Pray that their time will be encouraging and fruitful, that the Lord will guide their conversations and fellowship. Would He use them to encourage and challenge those they minister among.

17. Ecuador: Sebastian and Beth Wolf write, “Our tourist visa has been extended. Now we’re trying to sort out everything for the next steps.” Please pray for them to receive their long-term visas.

18. Germany: Jana Kontermann, Silas and Avery Frank, and Lena Ruopp are delighted, “It is very encouraging to know that more Christians want to share the gospel of Jesus in Berlin-Weißensee. A couple opened a space for us where people can spend time in worship and counseling. We now meet there monthly for praying together.” Please pray for this community of believers to continue to grow and be strengthened in their desire to share the gospel.
