18. France: Evelyn Theurer shares, “I’ve been in Alsace for almost a year now, and it’s becoming clearer how I could work across congregations here. I’ve developed a program for family worship services and made it available to the churches. Please pray that it will foster fellowship among one another and with Jesus, and that it will also reach families who rarely or never attend church.”

19. Canada: Sam and Anne Strauss will be speaking at a church near Ottawa today. Please pray for encouraging fellowship and the impact of God’s Word.
Please also pray in general for deepened relationships and partnerships between presently supporting and new churches with our mission.

20. Bangladesh: Micha and Katrin Ulmer report, “We are grateful that the children’s group, teen group, and youth group have now become established as weekly gatherings at the Khulna Children’s Village. The women’s group is also well received." Please pray for each of these groups to be places of encouragement.

21. Canada: From Zack and Carolyn Perluisi, "Tomorrow begins our fall impact-Mission retreat. Our 32 impactlers will be at the retreat center until Thursday. Please pray for an encouraging time of refreshment, teaching and connecting. May the impactlers return to their placements refreshed and ready to continue serving in the places that they have been called to this year."

Thought of the Week:
“God is our origin. Knowing where you came from makes all the difference in seeing where it is you need to go.”
-Jen Wilkin

22. France: Peter and Sigrun Rapp write, “Please pray that God would provide additional members for the Avranches church’s worship team.”

23. Spain: Annika Breling writes: “Thanks be to Jesus that I’m increasingly settling in here. I’m making my first friends. Please pray for wisdom as I organize my responsibilities at the Protestant school ‘Alfa y Omega.’ The school serves about 400 children and teenagers. Please pray for good relationships with the staff at the school and the church.”

24. Sending missionaries: LMC has been approached by three Christian schools in the international Liebenzell network seeking teachers to teach for 2-3 years for multiple subjects and class levels. Although not all details are clarified yet, please pray for that God would equip these schools with capable staff, investing in children, sharing their faith and enabling ministry families in their service. Perhaps the Lord will call Canadians to serve abroad with Liebenzell and churches to support these efforts.

25. Middle East: After a visit home, our staff with family are settling back into life in the country. Since most of their friends and acquaintances have also returned, they are able to reconnect with them. We ask for God’s protection, joy in their daily school life, and wisdom in interacting with the neighbourhood children whose families are facing difficult circumstances.

26. Western Canada: Please pray for Herbert Reichelt, a former Pastor of a Liebenzell affiliate church in Edmonton. He is 94 and health issues are becoming an increasing burden. Let us lift him up to our compassionate Lord to help Herbert and his relatives in this time.

27. Japan: Fabian and Debora Knoos are serving in the international church in Nororito. Due to staff changes and a growing group of young adults, some roles need to be filled, and structures need to be reviewed. May God guide them so that both church members and new visitors feel equally cared. Please also pray for the church to find a larger meeting space.

28. Canada: From Tobias and Sarah Müller, "Please pray for Tobias as he shares a gospel message at the food bank breakfast today. Pray that God would prepare open hearts, empower him with wisdom and clarity, and use the message to transform lives for eternity through the saving power of Jesus Christ."

29. Papua New Guinea: The country continues to face major political and economic problems, such as inflation and issues with water and electricity supply, etc. The population is suffering greatly. Please pray for wise politicians who prioritize the people over personal enrichment.

30. Germany: Charlie and Maria Vogt share, “By January, we want to have established contacts with people involved in social and charitable work in order to put together a solid program for the second phase of the ‘impact-move’ discipleship program in Marseille, which starts in January. Please pray that we’ll be able to integrate well into the programs here.

Thought of the Week:
“Anything under God's control is never out of control.”
— Charles Swindoll

LIEBENZELL MISSION of Canada

November 2026

Prayer Guide

Liebenzell Mission of Canada
12168 First Line, RR # 1
Moffat, ON L0 1J0
www.liebenzell.ca

Thought of the Week:
"Prayer is abandoning your place in the center of your world and daily surrendering that place to God alone as an act of heartfelt worship."

-Paul David Tripp

1. Canada: From Reach Community Church, " Our new leadership team members are starting their terms this month. Please pray for God's guidance, wisdom, and grace as they find into their new roles."

2. Zambia/ Malawi: Dietmar and Katrin Brunner traveled to Malawi in early October to try out simple agricultural alternatives with people in the Ubwenzi village development project. They brought along many different plants, worm compost, cuttings, seeds, and more. Please pray that they will adapt well to the climate and language over the next three months and that they will truly be able to help by providing guidance on alternative farming methods.

3. Canada: Tobias and Sarah Müller write, "We're joining in with churches and ministries alongside the young adults who came to Canada for the first phase of the impact-move discipleship course. Please pray for good fellowship and that their relationships with God will deepen."

4. Canada: Markus Gommel writes, "When visiting my hometown, we always visit a Kurdish family, and they are very happy about it. This year a relative from Turkey was there and requested a Bible which I happily gave to them. Please pray that they will be more curious about our Lord and that they will accept Jesus into their lives."

5. Burundi: Chiara Schwehn reports, "Please join me in giving thanks for a wonderful children's vacation week organized by the Christian Life Ministry. Thirty-five children from the neighborhood took part. Please pray that these young people will come to know God more closely.

6. USA: This month LM USA is celebrating their 85th year of ministry. Let's give thanks to the LORD for 85 years of his provision and fruitfulness in the mission. Please pray with us for God's continued favour and blessing over many more years of faithful service.

7. Malawi: Johannes and Vroni Urschitz report from the Ubwenzi village development project, "We are so grateful to God! All teaching positions have been filled for the new school year. Successors have also been found for the two most important roles in the project, the school chaplain and administrator, as well as the person responsible for youth ministry and the Bible program at the school. Please pray with us for a smooth transition and onboarding process."

Thought of the Week:

"Prayer is the spontaneous response of the believing heart to God. Those truly transformed by Jesus Christ find themselves lost in wonder and joy of communion with Him. Prayer is as natural for the Christian as breathing"

— John MacArthur

8. Germany: Debora Schutte works with people from immigrant backgrounds at the Hoffnungshaus in Bad Liebenzell. She writes, "We thank God with all our hearts for all the encouragement we experience every day. Please pray with us that the Hoffnungshaus will have an even greater impact on the immediate neighborhood and the local church.

9. France: Michael and Tina Eckstein share, "We have found a location for our church plant in the northwest of Nantes. We now hold weekly worship services there. However, we are still looking for a space right in the neighborhood that was originally targeted. Please pray for wisdom for the leaders of the daughter church and the mother church 'Générations' as they navigate these changes and work to foster a spirit of unity."

10. Canada: From Markus and Regine Gommel, "We are back from our ministry promotion trip in Germany very encouraged; and are praying for guidance and direction as we get back into our Canadian life and ministry!"

11. Germany: Frank and Hanna Winkelmann report, "As part of the church plant in Tübingen, a young Chinese woman decided to follow Jesus, was baptized, and is rejoicing in her new life in Christ. Please pray that the other Chinese people who came to faith this year will also decide to be baptized."

12. Malawi: Joachim and Mirjam Berger report, "When we visited the Chisomo Theological and Vocational Training Center, a student shared her life story. She grew up as a pastor's daughter but didn't know what to make of this Jesus. After six months at Chisomo, she decided to live a life with him. Please join us in giving thanks that through the classes, devotions, and fellowship at Chisomo, young people are continually finding their way to Jesus."

13. Canada: Dave Jarsetz is flying into Canada today. He will be visiting the missionaries and their ministries as well as meeting with the LMC board of directors. Pray for a blessed time of encouragement.

14. Austria: Stefan and Angelika Lanz write, "From October 16 through December 5, we're offering another faith course in Bludenz. Please pray also here, that the participants will come to know Jesus."

Thought of the Week:

"We must be global Christians, with a global vision because we serve a global God."

-John Stott

15. Canada: Markus Gommel writes, "When visiting Nuremberg in Germany, I was encouraged to pray for peace between Russia and Ukraine; therefore, please pray with us for immediate peace there."

16. Canada: Tobias and Sarah Müller write, "Sarah meets regularly with women from our neighborhood for social gatherings and creative activities. These gatherings lead to conversations about faith and Jesus. Please pray for openness, genuine interest, and that our friends will come to know Jesus."

17. France: Norbert and Susanne Laffin share, "Join us in giving thanks for God's work in the life of our daughter Lea's friend. She knows about our daughter's faith. At our last meeting before the semester began, she admitted to having fears about the future. 'Can you recommend a church in Paris that's like yours?' she asked at the end. L. has already attended a worship service. Please pray that she will find a personal faith!"